WHITEPAPER

SPIKY

Introduction

Spiky is more than just a memecoin. It is a movement powered by its community. Born from creativity and driven by collective energy, Spiky aims to unite crypto enthusiasts under one mission to build something bold, fun, and unstoppable together.

In a world where most projects chase quick profits, Spiky stands for connection, transparency, and real engagement. Every holder becomes part of the ecosystem, contributing to its growth and evolution.

This is not only about memes. It is about creating a digital identity that lives through its people, its culture, and its shared ambition. Spiky represents the new generation of community driven tokens where the story, the strength, and the success all belong to the community.

Token Presentation

Token Name: Spiky

Symbol: SPK

Network: Binance Smart Chain (BSC) or Solana

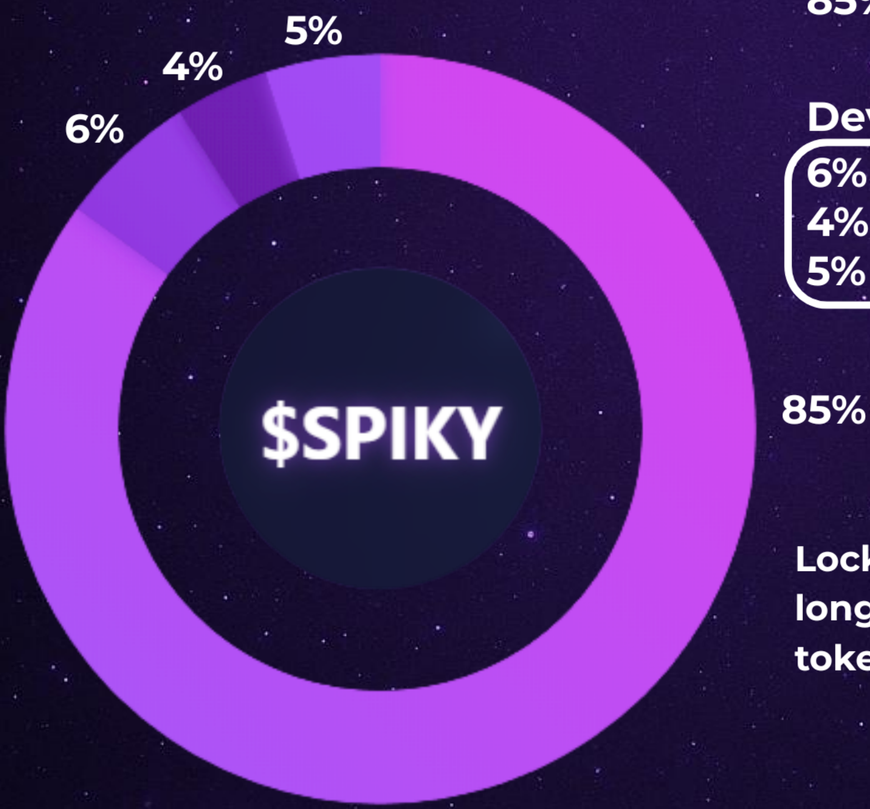
Token Type: Meme Token

Total Supply: 1,000,000,000 SPK

Tokenomics

Spiky's tokenomics are structured for transparency, fairness, and long-term confidence.

At launch, 85% of the total supply will remain available on the market, ensuring a clean and open launch without presale or private allocation. This design allows for natural price discovery and fair participation from anyone interested in the project.



85% - Community Supply

Developer Wallet (15%)

6% - Project Treasury
4% - Marketing & Development
5% - Community Rewards

Locked funds, clear structure, and long-term focus make Spiky's tokenomics secure and trustworthy.

The remaining 15% is reserved for the developer wallet, distributed as follows:

6% Project Treasury – This reserve will be locked for several months to secure long-term project stability and maintain liquidity. It will be used exclusively for development, ecosystem support, and future project growth. This approach guarantees that the project cannot be dumped or rugged, reinforcing Spiky's commitment to long-term sustainability.

4% Marketing and Development – Dedicated to ongoing promotion, influencer partnerships, and project innovation to keep Spiky visible and competitive in the market.

5% Community Rewards – A few weeks after launch, special rewards will be distributed to the most active supporters, those who engage through likes, retweets, and consistent promotion of the project. These individuals will be personally selected and publicly acknowledged in an official X post as recognition of their contribution.

Security & Transparency

Liquidity Lock

A portion of the liquidity pool will be locked for a defined period to guarantee market stability and prevent sudden withdrawals. This ensures investor protection and long-term project credibility.

Contract Audits

Independent third-party audits will verify the smart contract's structure, ensuring there are no vulnerabilities or risks for holders. This reinforces trust and transparency in the project's foundation.

Community Power

The true strength of Spiky lies in its community. Every holder, supporter, and creator plays a direct role in shaping the project’s future. Through engagement, creativity, and shared passion, the community drives visibility, growth, and innovation.

Spiky is built on collaboration, not hierarchy. Every voice matters, and every contribution helps the project evolve. The community is not just part of Spiky it is Spiky.

Long-Term Vision

Spiky is built for endurance, not hype.
The project focuses on sustainable growth through transparent management, continuous development, and responsible decision-making. Every step aims to strengthen the foundation for lasting relevance in the evolving crypto space.
